THE STUCKLE FAMILY

July, 1962

INTRODUCTION

The enclosed family history was given to Ervin and Phyllis Stuckle by Sophie Handel (241 Watson, Lodi, California). It is our understanding that this material was compiled by Louisa and Rosa Stuckle (Rt. No. 1, Box 37, Lacrosse, Washington) in December 1959, with the contributions of many others, I am sure.

In addition to the family history, enclosed is part of a letter written in German by Wilhelm Stuckle to his children. Wilhelm is the second son of Ludwig Stuckle and Christina Stuckle.

My wife translated this letter from German to English and this translation follows the German letter.

Any additional information, especially dates of births, deaths, and marriages would add interest and accuracy to this family history. If Phyllis and I gain more material, we will compile this history again and furnish it to those interested. Additional copies of this reproduction can be obtained from:

Sincerely,

Ervin Stuckle
Ervin Stuckle

The following translation is two paragraphs written by Wilhelm Stuckle, Ervin's grandfather, in a family letter. The letter is headed Herbert, Sask. Canada, December 4, 1940. Any corrections in the translation would be appreciated.

Phyllis Stuckle

"Du fragst von meinen Eltern. Mein Grossvater ist als junger Mann con Deutschland nach Russland ausgewandert im Jahr 1803. Er war ein Weber und ging nach Gildendorf wo er 60 Desenden Land haben konnte."

"You ask about my parents. My grandfather (Danile), as a young man in 1803, went from Germany to Russia. He was a weaver and he went to Gildendorf where he bought 60 (acres?) of land."

"Mein Groszvater hiess Daniel und mein Vater hiesz Ludwig. Er ist in Gildendorf in Russland geboren. Und von Mutter Seite ist meine Groszmutter als junges Mädchen von Deutschland nach Russland gekommen, und sind nach Neuburg gezogen. Hat sich dort mit einem Ottmar verheirated der ein Schubmacher war. Meine Mutter ist in Neuburg geboren, in Russland, und ich bin in Gildendorf in Russland geboren. Als ich 6 Wochen alt war, sind meine Eltern nach Neusatz gebogen. Dort war ich bis ich 27 Jahre alt war, dann wir nach Amerika gezogen im Jahr 1885. In Jahr 1881 haben wir uns verheirated."

"My grandfather is named Daniel and my father is named Ludwig. He (Ludgiw) was born in Gildendorf, Russia. As to my mother's side, my grandmother went from Germany to Russia as a young girl, and travelled to Neuburg, Russia. She married an 'Ottmar', who was a shoemaker. My mother was born in Neuburg, Russia, and I was born in Gildendorf, Russia. When I was six my parents moved to Neusatz. I lived there until I was twenty-seven years old and then I came to America in 1885. I was married in 1881."
